Contract For Student & Parent(s)/Guardian(s):

I am willing to have my music readiness evaluated by my school music teacher/director, as part of my application for an instrument. I promise to take part in the school music program.

I understand that if I drop out of music, move away, or lose interest in playing this instrument I must return the instrument to Music For Minors Foundation, Inc., and that the Foundation will pursue any means necessary, including legal and/or police action, to retrieve our instrument.

I also understand that if I continue active participation in the school music program with satisfactory performance for three more years, including three re-certifications each year, the instrument becomes a gift to me.
